United Secfenia Vote called for

Fenia, US - Allison Legan-Russ has called for elections in United Secfenia for the Governor and Viceroy of Fenia positions. She cited the constitution stating that it was definately overdue. Natonito Albright II said that this election is good for a reassurance that the people of United Secfenia still want him to rule. There have been fierce competition and ads via several media forums. The election is currently happening and the current exit polls show that Natonito Albright II and Allison Legan-Russ are running a very tight race. We will keep you up to date on the current election process as things develop. One political analyst feels that people will end up deciding upon stability rather than a new person. That analyst said, "Fear of the unknown can cause elections mismatches."

Shi`tain Republic Stirs

Fremelville, SR - In the Shi`tain Republic, there seems to be several groups of people who are calling for a new government. The current government has ordered peace and stated in a press release that if the people do not become orderly, the state will be forced to use whatever means necessary.

Some groups in the Shi`tain Repulic are requesting meetings with outside ambassadors from Jenusfia, Valleria, and United Secfenia. We will be watching the situation and trying to keep you up to date on the current situation. A number of international traders have halted their shipments to Shi`tain Republic in fear of the internal problems. Ruby Red Wine has halted all shipments to Shi`tain until further notice as well as several other companies.

New Fullerium Falls Into Anarchy

Carabinoville, NF - New Fullerium's Palace was burned yesterday and all government officials that were inside are assumed to be dead. No official government official appears to be in control anymore. New Fullerium has been struggling with their government for the past few months. The Nation of New Fullerium has died and the people are split up into several groups of people. No one faction seems to control a majority of the people. Crime has skyrocketed and it is no longer safe to walk around the area at night and during a lot of the day.

Roming bands of "Pirates" and other "Thieves" have taken to the streets. Almost all of the former mayors have fled into surrounding territories or concealed themselves. Internal Police have broken down and it looks as if a mulitple civil war could break out. Conditions have never been so poor in New Fullerium.

Union of Secfenia.... Will it stay united?

Robert Russ III was Governor of the now defunct, Secfenian Nation. So many people over the years have tried to mold nations into new versions of the old nation. Recently Fue de Joie II and Natonito Albright II joined Zion and United Secfenia to form the Union of Secfenia. Both sides have had some local problems, but nothing that they have not been able to handle.

In the former nation of Zion, some protests have been held against Albright and Joie's new government. The Free Union Party has publically rejected the new government saying that "the union is a step away from the true union that we need to be at. How free is each area?". The Progressive Union party has been supporting the new government and rejects the allegations fo the Free Union Party. Progressive Union Party spokeswoman said, "We have been progressively doing what all Secfenians want. Isn't the government supposed to follow the desires of the people to the best ability?"

The area will the least difficulty is coming from the area that used to be Imperial Secfenia. The people have rejoiced at the removal of the borders between the two former nations. Fue de Joie II was there at the ceremonies where the wall was removed.

The Secfenia Tribune has tried to get some input from some of the nations regarding this new nation, but have been denied comment. Can this new nation last? Analyst Jacobe Usabi believes that it can. "The new government holds the keys to a successful government. They have supporters, people who dislike them, a strong military, and representation for the people. What more could one want, " he commented.

Blondebeard Strikes!

Fenia River - The shores of the Fenia River are no longer safe. A Pirate of legend has emerged and laid siege to many ships and other vessels near the water of the Fenia River. Estimates keep increasing every time we try and find out how much money, property damage, etc has been done by Pirate Blondebeard. Rumors have it that he and his groups of Pirates have taken most of the old Fulleria vessels and turned them against the people who travel the Fenia River. Several posse gangs have tried to stop the Pirates, but none have been successful. The reign of terror will not likely be halted anytime soon.

New Fullerium is about to be newer...

New Tunis, Valleria - An official press statement was released to the Secfenia Tribune the other day regarding the status of the former New Fullerium. New Fullerium has been declared a protectorate state of Valleria under the orders of Calmen Arendyke. We took some reporters into the dangerous areas of New Fullerium and asked opinions. We got everything from total joy to distaste. It seems some are happy and others are not so happy. However, as one man said, "As the nations merge and combine, sometimes we have to accept what happens and trust in a stable government to lead us. We haven't had that... maybe Valleria can do that."

Some other news that the people may like is the fact that Valleria is planning on switching the current currency in both Fulleria and in Valleria to a new gold standard that should stabilize the economy in both lands. The rumors have it that the new currency will be called the Secfal. Of course, when the currency is officially released the IME will probably have out new rates for exchange.

Some people in the Union of Secfenia say that this current move will upset the balance of power in Secfenia. Several analysts are concerned that we may end up living in a tripolar or quad-polar world that is at ends with each other. However, Mark Muria stated, "It is slowly happening. As nations merge, the Secfenia Nation will once again come up and bring us back the glory of the old ages."

Shi`tain Republic Government

Shi`tain Republic - News has it that the current leader of Shi`tain Republic is aging and that the government is looking for a suitable replacement. It is rumored that they are accepting applications.

New IME Rates Released

IME - The IME has released new rates effective immediately for all of the nations participating. The rates are:

1 Rupal (Shi`tain Republic) = 0.1 Dollars (Jenusfia) = 0.06 Secfals = 0.04 Dinners (Union of Secfenia)

Sephayyim Republic

New Fenia, US - Some fishermen from the Union of Secfenia have claimed to have found a new republic called the Sephayyim Republic. Rumors have it that this new nation is headed by Rubemyyat Sephayyar. We sent some reporters to check the claims and have found the territory, but have not yet sent anyone to check it out. Shall this be a new glorious nation?

Shi`tain Republic Government Falls and Returns

Shi`tain Republic - Ze Lue has defeated the old leader of the Shi`tain Republic. In a very bloody war, Ze Lue and his military have taken over the Republic with a strong hand and a happy crowd. Many challenges shall probably face the new government over time. Until that time, the people are trying to repiece their lives together.

Blondebeard Demands

Viceroy's Palace - Blondebeard has continued his attacks, but is becoming more clever by the minute. He has however stated some demands that he says will stop his violence against the sea ships that pass. His demands are:

1. The Formation of an Independant Nation called "Andorra" in the areas north of the Fenia River
2. The Haltage of all Vallerian Vessels in the Fenia River
3. The International Waters Treaty be written and approved by all nations that will allow safe passage of all people through the Fenia River

Earthquake!

Viceroy's Palace - Yesterday, a huge earthquake occurred causing lots of damage and injury. Although reports are still coming in, we've discovered that there are at least 5,000,000 lives lost. This is indeed a sad day for many families. Reports also indicate that the Sephayim Republic has suffered great land damage. Ships from Valleria, Union of Secfenia, Jenusfia, and the Military Colation of Bercaria (formerly known as the Shi`tain Republic) are rushing to try and save many people who are stuck in the waters that now cover good portions of the former land.

Also, Jenusfian citizens are also affected. Not only have they had to deal with the loss of about 1,000,000 people due to fatal injuries but they must face an even harder loss. The Ruler of Jenusfia was killed when half of the Jenusfian Palace exploded due to a gas leak which was caused by the earthquake.

United Colition of Frincia Ambassador Exchange

The United Colition of Frincia has sent its ambassadors to practically all nations. Political Analysts say that this is one step towards integration with the rest of the Secfenia World. "It can be difficult being a new nation in a hostile environment, " one such analyst said.

Fue de Joie II even stated "the United Colation of Frincia seems to be a very unique nation. I am sure that relations will be strong with the major powers that are."

Shall the United Colition of Frincia become an integrated part of the Secfenian World? One can only wait and see.

Power Outages

Throughout the areas near where the Earthquake occurred, power lines and radio/television stations are out. Power is slowly being restored as they clear the debris and can get to them. As power is restored, phone lines shall be restored as it can be done. For more information and updates on the particular problems in your area, please stay tuned to your local radio/TV stations that are broadcasting still.

Fue de Joie II is dead!

As the sun rose early in Zion, the people of the Union of Secfenia got a surprise. One of the Dualarchs had been stabbed with a dagger. Reports have to that it occurred yesterday night. A stranger entered his house and stabbed the Dualarch. This has brought a huge range of emotions from the people of the Union of Secfenia, everything from mourning to songs of joy which state "Hurray! The Witch is Dead!".

According to US rules, he would be succeeded by whomever he appointed, but according to our best knowledge, no one was ever selected. What will happen to the US now? Is there only one Dualarch?

Andorra Ambassadors

Andorra has sent its ambassadors to all nations in a move to better its public image. "Stability is important in this day and age. I want to help us all become better friends and help stability," Blondebeard told us in an exclusive interview. Will Andorra be accepted? Will peace reign?
